A BIG TREAT

For Clarksburg Theatregoers "Madam Butterfly" Will Be Says Manager Benedict.

W. J. Benedict, business manager of the English Opera Company which is presenting Giacomo Puccini's opera, "Madam Butterfly," based on the novel by John Luther Long and the play by David Belasco, was in the city this week making arrangements for the appearance of his company at the Grand opera house Tuesday, January 19.

This production should be a genuine grand opera treat for Clarksburgers. Mr. Benedict said, as it will be most elaborately staged and have a notable cast of singers. According to present arrangements, it will be Miss Adelaide Norwood's turn to sing the leading role at the appearance here. This noted singer was for several years with the Savage production of this opera and was, in fact, the original Madame Butterfly of America. The company carries two sets of principals who alternate, each performing only three engagements a week. The company consists of seventy-five persons and the orchestra contains 30 pieces. It will be necessary to remove the railing and front row of seats in the opera house to accommodate the orchestra. Mr. Benedict says the production in its entirety will be staged at the Grand. The company carries its entire paraphernalia from the spot-light machine down to the smallest strip of scenery. They will come to Clarksburg next Tuesday morning on a special train from Cumberland, Md., where they play Monday night. The reserved seat sale opens at the theatre Friday.
